I can feel myself not wanting him to go. But he's fading away. He knows he's going. He's actually been decluttering this past week. I didn't even suggest it to him. He's letting go of everything. I can feel that's his way of letting go of his life. He's not resisting his death. For most of his life he was strong-willed.

Clutter Is Inorganic. Before I started clutter busting, I used to bartend. I would go to people 's homes and make drinks for their parties. One guy was throwing a big bash for his best friend's birthday, and many guests were in attendance. This guy had a huge, expensive sound system, and he was preoccupied with getting the music just right.
