One of the first science fiction radio series was Buck Rogers in the Twenty-fifth Century (the example here is from the later series). It told the story of a person from our own time finding himself in the 25th Century. Despite very clear enemies, life in this time was generally wonderful since mankind had clearly conquered space.

was a long-running series hosted and starring (for the most part) William Conrad, a voice almost as synonymous with OTR as Orson Welles. A spinoff series from Suspense, Escape ran on CBS from 1947 to 1954, broadcasting a wide range of stories—science fiction, horror, murder mysteries—though it seemed to display a fondness for adventure tales set in the tropics or on the high seas.
