I adore his character, I care about him and I blame it all on Ms. Speed. She's created a character that's come to life for me, and a book over three hundred pages is still not enough. I don't know how Ms. Speed has done it but she's kept the quality and vibrancy intact and sharpened the emotional edge to a fine point in Life After Death

Infected: Life After Death by Andrea Speed

Only through near-death experiences can we understand the transition of life after death. In 1975, Dr. Raymond Moody released his best-selling book "Life After Life." His book turned the public's attention towards near-death experiences. In fact, it was Moody who coined the term "near-death experience.”
