Inner Temple (and the neighbouring Middle Temple) is also one of the few remaining liberties, an old name for a geographic division. It is an independent extra-parochial area, historically not governed by the City of London Corporation (and is today regarded as a local authority for most purposes) and equally outside the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Bishop of London.

Treachery: Caina (32), Antenora (32-3), Ptolomea (33), Judecca (34) Dante divides circle 9, the circle of treachery--defined in Inferno 11 as fraudulent acts between individuals who share special bonds of love and trust (61-6)--into four regions. Caina is named after the biblical Cain (first child of Adam and Eve), who slew his brother Abel out of envy after God showed appreciation for Abel's ...

Immanuel Kant (1724-1804) is the central figure in modern philosophy. He synthesized early modern rationalism and empiricism, set the terms for much of nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy, and continues to exercise a significant influence today in metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, political philosophy, aesthetics, and other fields.

Before entering upon an explanation of the teachings of the Rosicrucians, it may be well to say a word about them and about the place they hold in the evolution of humanity.. For reasons to be given later these teachings advocate the dualistic view; they hold that man is a Spirit enfolded all the powers of God as the seed enfolds the plant, and that these powers are being slowly unfolded by a ...

The first principle of destiny is that we can only change it in the present.. The second principle is that we create destiny for ourselves by our everyday thoughts - our wishes, what attracts us and repels us, our likes and dislikes.. The third principle is that we need to work upon the mind to design our destiny. And for this we need a meditative practice.
