Is a smart meter mandatory? It's completely up to you as to whether you get a smart meter installed. The government is aiming to install smart meters in every home by 2020 and there are benefits to having one, such as meter readings being sent direct to your supplier so you get more accurate bills, but that doesn't mean you have to have a smart meter if you don't want one.

Android is a mobile operating system developed by Google. It is based on a modified version of the Linux kernel and other open source software, and is designed primarily for touchscreen mobile devices such as smartphones and tablets. In addition, Google has further developed Android TV for televisions, Android Auto for cars, and Wear OS for wrist watches, each with a specialized user interface.
